Background

Since September 2023, I have been working permanently with Dike Schindhelm as head of the 'Tax' department.

Since 2005 owner of the office Piasente Dottore Commercialista e Revisore dei Conti.

In the period 2019–2020: partecipazioni in the Specialisation Course in Legal Auditing organised by SAF (Scuola di Alta Formazione) Emilia–Romagna.

From September 1990 to July 2000: university degree in economics;

From September 1995 until June 2000: Accounting diploma from the Pier Crescenzi Technical Institute in Bologna.

Expertise

As part of my work, I deal with tax and administrative issues aimed at an audience consisting mainly of corporations. Over the years I have specialised in tax and administrative consultancy aimed at business planning both from a tax and operational administrative point of view, assisting directors in the development of their businesses in Italy and abroad. I have developed and increased professional experience in tax litigation.

Additionally, I have matured substantial experience as an expert in managing debtor relations with credit institutions and in particular vis-à-vis the collection agency Agenzia delle Entrate Riscossione.

I am an experienced lecturer in funded and non-funded training projects on accounting and tax law for small and medium-sized enterprises.

I have been appointed as statutory auditor in numerous companies.
