

Petra Jaretzke

Business graduate
Certified tax adviser
Business mediator

Contact details

Hannover
T +49 511 53460-236
F +49 511 53460-260
petra.jaretzke@schindhelm.com

Main areas

- Tax law / business administration advice

Background

Petra Jaretzke has worked for Schindhelm Rechtsanwaltsgesellschaft mbH in Hanover since the end of 2012.

From 1992 to September 2012 she worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers in Hanover, as well as some months in Philadelphia/USA, from 1995 as a tax partner in the Tax & Legal department.

From 1984 to 1992, Petra Jaretzke worked as a tax officer in an international group in Salzgitter and Hanover.

From 1978 to 1984 she studied business administration at the Georg-August University in Göttingen with a degree in business administration and passed the tax consultant exam in 1989.

Expertise

Petra Jaretzke advises private individuals, entrepreneurs, companies and non-profit organizations of various sizes and industries on all tax matters. She has extensive experience in advising on national and international corporate restructuring and on business and property succession. She advises on issues of national and international tax planning and tax enforcement, e.g. in the context of binding rulings from tax authorities, in mutual agreements with tax authorities and in tax audits.

Petra Jaretzke lectures and publishes regularly on selected tax topics.

References

- Restructuring of an international logistics group (total sales around EUR 600 million)
- Advice on the corporate and asset succession of a medium-sized wholesaler (EUR 30 million)
- Advice on the restructuring and corporate succession of a family-run branch retail trade company (total sales around EUR 300 million)
- Advice on income tax aspects when wealthy individuals move abroad
- Tax due diligence for company acquisitions
- Advising non-profit organizations on tax issues relating to the operation of taxable commercial businesses

Languages

German, English